

Copy Of A Letter To James Nelson: On My Return From Richmond

copy. New York, June 30^{July} . 49 My dearest Ann,
I have this moment received you of 27th . . . This day week received a letter from my own sweet Eddy. He writes he is better in health and rather better in spirits. He assures me he never did anything which he was so deranged that was in the least disgraceful. He fancied he was pursued by the police but it was not so. I have gained all the particulars from several Gentlemen to whom I wrote whom I found I could not go to him.
Dear Eddy wrote in his last that he was going from Richmond in a few days, to stay with a friend in the country for a short time. I hope that is the reason I did not hear from him today.
